President's Message

We don't always get things right. But we try. We learn. We adjust and try again. Seems like that is a running thing in my life, business and with WBO. Is it the same for you?

As a new president in an organization that is still fairly new to me, this is the road we are taking. And we don't do this alone. I am so grateful for those women who have not just been members of WBO for years, but who consistently share their love and passion for it as they embrace the new and unknown. There is so much legacy in WBO and that's a powerful part of our story that it's important to hang onto even as we strive for change and growth.

I want to take a moment to specifically thank the board right now. These women serve in so many ways and each is brilliant in her field of expertise – which makes US better because we are coming together with a common mission and vision for all of you! I have so much gratitude for each of these amazing women. Their names, photos, and businesses are all included in this email. I invite you to get to know them, follow them on social media, and be part of their

Do you have an office space you'd like to show off to your WBO friends? Do you work in a space that would promote connections? If so, we'd love for it to be one of this year's sites for the After Hours! As we return to in-person After Hours in 2022, we are looking for members to host these gatherings on the second Thursday of the month from 5 – 7PM. You don't need a huge area - just enough to accommodate 15 – 20 women business owners who are eager to connect. Interested? Want more details? Contact Laura Doehle.
